BIOGRAPHY

BIOGRAPHY: Ted Failon

At 15 years old, Ted Failon was already a hard worker, holding various jobs to help his parents make ends meet. During college, Ted would continue working and at age of 25, would be named the station manager for a radio station in his hometown of Tacloban. He would also find work and relocate to Pampanga while constantly trying to catch a break in Manila.

In 1990, Ted would finally get into ABS-CBN as a desk editor. Within a few months, Ted was given a break on DZMM and became anchor of Gising Pilipinas! Soon, he became a regular anchor for DZMM. He became part of such shows as Bayan Ko, Sagot Ko, Bahay Kalinga, Mission Exposé and TV Patrol. He would also introduce the program Aksyon Ngayon! and become part of Hoy! Gising.

Ted Failon is synonymous with public service. He and his past endeavors have been recognized by the Catholic Mass Media Awards, the Gawad CCP and the Star Awards.

Currently, Ted hosts programs in both radio and television: Failon Ngayon sa DZMM (Failon Today on DZMM), Failon Ngayon (Failon Today), and TV Patrol have all won awards from different award giving bodies

In early 2011, Ted has already won numerous awards including the USTv Student's Choice Award for Best Male News and Current Affairs Program Host, the Gandingan Award for Best News Anchor, Best AM Announcer, Most Development Oriented AM Program (for Tambalang Failon at Sanchez) and for Best News Program (for TV Patrol World).He was also named as the 2011 Rotary Club of Manila Broadcaster of the Year.

In almost 3 decades of experience, Ted Failon has become an unparalleled force in the broadcasting industry.
